

NS Anecdotes

In 1996, NS System goes to the Tour of Denmark

In 1996, Claus Rask and Niels Rask go to the Tour of Denmark (Post Danmark Rundt) with a stack of Bjarne Riis T-shirts to sell to the crowd.

In 1996, there is a lot of focus on Bjarne Riis and he was one of the big favourites to take the yellow jersey and the top spot on the podium in the Tour de France. Claus Rask jumps on this wave and has many T-shirts printed up with a Bjarne Riis motif on them that he and his son, Niels Rask, sell to the crowd at that year's Tour of Denmark.

He sells these T-shirts to the crowd around the race route. On top of that, Claus Rask also meets and shakes hands with Bjarne after the race. And believe it or not, as it turned out, Bjarne Riis wins the tour and the yellow jersey.
